Llewellyn Ericsson, 17, of 3980 Avondale avenue, Chicago, was killed this morning at 3:45 o'clock on Route 54 just north of Grayslake when struck by an automobile of which John Baumann, Lake Villa, was the driver. Baumann was driving north on Route 54 when his car struck Ericsson. The youth and his brother, Richard, aged 14, who were on bicycles, had halted on the pavement, witness said. The body of Llewellyn was dragged 116 feet, county sheriff's officers who were summoned to the scene estimated.

Richard, who was suffering from shock and possible injuries, was taken to St. Therese's hospital in Waukegan.

The body of Llewellyn was removed to the Strang Funeral home in Grayslake.

The boys, who had been visiting friends in Lake Villa, were apparently returning to their home when the accident occurred.

"Matinee dances" on Sunday afternoon and early Sunday evening are being featured by Adolph's Channel Inn on Highway 173, two and one-half miles west of Antioch. Music is also being supplied by Van's "Kings of Rhythm" orchestra for dancing on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Chicken dinners are a specialty at the Channel Inn.

The fine bathing beach at Howard Smith's Slide Inn on Channel Lake is having its inuring during these warm (and warmer!) days. The screened porch above the lake, where sandwiches and other refreshments are served, is also favored by seekers-after-coolness.

A party of about 32 persons from Oak Park and an Armenian club of about 100 members from Chicago were among the groups that enjoyed outings at the Country House resort on the west side of Channel lake during the week-end.

All but three rooms of the resort's spacious hotel facilities were needed to accommodate the large number of week-end guests, according to Julius J. Stern, proprietor.

ZONE LAW GUARDS NON-CONFORMING RURAL BUSINESSES

But if Present Buildings Are Removed Land Will Revert to Residential

(Waukegan Times)

With development of the territory west and north of the city for residential purposes, the new county zoning laws pertaining to the operation of established businesses, such as taverns, hot dog stands, automobile graveyards, and garages and so on is coming in for much attention.

Inquiries to the zoning commission as to the possibilities of continued operation of businesses regarded as undesirable in the promotion of better residential sections has directed much attention to the provision in county zoning ordinances governing non-conforming businesses.

Life of Building

Under the ordinance as approved by the county board and which is being enforced by the commission headed by John J. Hogan as chairman, all such businesses which were established before the ordinance was declared in effect will be permitted to continue operations.

However, the provision covers only the structure now located on the premises in question. In the event of a fire which damages the building more than 50 percent of its value the structure cannot be replaced and the property will revert to residential purposes only. The same holds true if the building remains unoccupied for a period of a year or more.

See End of Taverns

Owners of property on Sheridan rd. or in its vicinity north of the city and in that section west of the city, but east of Green Bay road, between Washington street and Grand avenue seem to be most interested in the provisions of the ordinance. They believe that in time the taverns that line the road will eventually pass out of existence.

Entries will be accepted until 2:30 p. m., and attendance will be open to all who wish to go to the affair.

DECORATIONS ARE PUT UP TO WELCOME 30,000 VISITORS

Preparations Drawing to a
Close for Celebration
August 11-13

Blossoming forth today in festival attire as decorations and streamers went up on ornamental light posts and store fronts along Main street, downtown of Antioch took on an air of anticipation for the Lions club festival next Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 11, 12 and 13.

Many of the downtown merchants and business men are planning special window displays and festival decorations which will add to the gala appearance taken on by the town for the event—the second annual one of its kind to be sponsored by the Lions.

An attendance of approximately 30,000 persons is expected for the three days of the fete. Admission to the festival is free of charge.

Preparations Complete

Committees of Lions club members under the leadership of Dr. D. N. Deering, president, have been working for months on preparations to insure the success of the big community-wide celebration.

In charge of the spacious festival grounds on Orchard street, adjacent to the village park, are Robert Abt, chairman, James McMillen, Ed Vos, L. O. Bright, W. I. Scott and Irving Elms.

This committee also has charge of amusements, and has arranged for a complete array of rides, merry-go-rounds and carnival fun-makers of all kinds.

The finding of parking space last year was the big problem, with the thousands of fun-lovers who thronged the city. This year the grounds committee is making plans to assure adequate parking for all who wish to visit the fete and also to take advantage of the "Festival of Bargains" that will be offered by business establishments in conjunction with the fete.

Downtown merchants and business men are planning to co-operate by parking their own automobiles in the rear of their buildings and keeping the Main street clear for festival visitors.

10,000 Programs

Ten thousand copies of a 16-page "Lions Club Festival" program, in which business men and business concerns of the city are almost unanimously represented by advertisements, or professional cards, have been printed and distributed by the program committee.

This committee, which is headed by Adolph Kueca and includes James Horan, C. E. Hennings and George Joedicke, has also had the territory for miles around Antioch placarded with a thousand large display posters, calling attention to the manifold attractions of the coming fete.

In addition, the committee has arranged the ambitious decorating program and secured the co-operation of merchants in arranging individual festival displays.

Advertisements and publicity stories welcoming visitors to the festival are being placed in leading newspapers of four counties by a committee including H. B. Gaston, chairman, and Dr. Deering.

Boy Loses Life In Cedar Lake

A searching party with the aid of volunteer firemen from Lake Villa dragged Cedar Lake for nearly an hour late Tuesday afternoon before the body of Edward Gabriel, 15, of 1923 North LeClaire avenue, Chicago, was recovered.

The youth was a member of a party of 20 boys and girls from the St. Paul's Lutheran church club who were holding an outing at the lake. With several others, he had swam to a raft 250 feet from the shore. At about 2:30 p. m. some of the swimmers decided to go over to another raft. Gabriel said he would stay for a while and rest. At five o'clock when the boys were called together for supper, he was found to be missing.

An inquest was held by Coroner John L. Taylor, and a verdict of accidental drowning was returned.

ZONE LAW GUARDS NON-CONFORMING RURAL BUSINESSES

But if Present Buildings Are Removed Land Will Re-
vert to Residential

(Waukegan Times)

With development of the territory west and north of the city for residential purposes, the new county zoning laws pertaining to the operation of established businesses, such as taverns, hot dog stands, automobile graveyards, and garages and so on is coming in for much attention.

Inquiries for the zoning commission as to the possibilities of continued operation of businesses regarded as undesirable in the promotion of better residential sections has directed much attention to the provision in county zoning ordinances governing non-conforming businesses.

Life of Building

Under the ordinance as approved by the county board and which is being enforced by the commission headed by John J. Hogan as chairman, all such businesses which were established before the ordinance, was declared in effect will be permitted to continue operations.

However, the provision covers only the structure now located on the premises in question. In the event of a fire which damages the building more than 50 percent of its value the structure cannot be replaced and the property will revert to residential purposes only. The same holds true if the building remains unoccupied for a period of a year or more.

See End of Taverns

Owners of property on Sheridan rd. or in its vicinity north of the city and in that section west of the city but east of Green Bay road, between Washington street and Grand avenue seem to be most interested in the provisions of the ordinance. They believe that in time the taverns that line the road will eventually pass out of existence.

Farwell of Lake Forest; Mrs. Thomas Connors, who has been a leader in the "Keep Lake Forest Beautiful" contest, and Mrs. Wanda Bennett of Fox Lake were the judges for the county contest.

Judges are now selecting regional winners from whose ranks State winners will be chosen for announcement at the Illinois State Fair. Photographs of winning entries will be displayed on the second floor of the grandstand in an exhibit arranged by the contest committee which includes representatives of the Illinois Federation of Women's Club, the Garden Club of Illinois and organized farm groups.

In all, 1800 farmers representing all counties are entered in the Farm Floral contest. Cash prizes will aggregate $2,500, and the State winner will receive a $100 cash prize in addition to the Governor Henry Horner plaque.

The Farm Floral contest is designed to supplement the State's roadside development program which has been carried on for the past four years by the division of highways.

DECORATIONS ARE PUT UP TO WELCOME 30,000 VISITORS

Preparations Drawing to a
Close for Celebration
August 11-13

Blossoming forth today in festival attire as decorations and streamers went up on ornamental light posts and store fronts along Main street, downtown Antioch took on an air of anticipation for the Lions club festival next Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 11, 12 and 13.

Many of the downtown merchants and business men are planning special window displays and festival decorations which will add to the gala appearance taken on by the town for the event—the second annual one of its kind to be sponsored by the Lions.

An attendance of approximately 30,000 persons is expected for the three days of the fete. Admission to the festival is free of charge.

Preparations Complete

Committees of Lions club members under the leadership of Dr. D. N. Deering, president, have been working for months on preparations to insure the success of the big community-wide celebration.

In charge of the spacious festival grounds on Orchard street, adjacent to the village park, are Robert Abt, chairman, James McMillen, Ed Vos, L. O. Bright, W. I. Scott and Irving Elms.

This committee also has charge of amusements, and has arranged for a complete array of rides, merry-go-rounds and carnival fun-makers of all kinds.

The finding of parking space last year was the big problem, with the thousands of fun-lovers who thronged the city. This year the grounds committee is making plans to assure adequate parking for all who wish to visit the fete and also to take advantage of the "Festival of Bargains" that will be offered by business establishments in conjunction with the fete.

Downtown merchants and business men are planning to co-operate by parking their own automobiles in the rear of their buildings and keeping the Main street clear for festival visitors.

10,000 Programs

Ten thousand copies of a 16-page "Lions Club Festival" program, in which business men and business concerns of the city are almost unanimously represented by advertisements, or professional cards, have been printed and distributed by the program committee.

This committee, which is headed by Adolph Kucera and includes James Horan, C. E. Hennings and George Jodick, has also had the territory for miles around Antioch placarded with a thousand large display posters, calling attention to the manifold attractions of the coming fete.

In addition, the committee has arranged the ambitious decorating program and secured the co-operation of merchants in arranging individual festival displays.

Advertisements and publicity stories welcoming visitors to the festival are being placed in leading newspapers of four counties by a committee including H. B. Gaston, chairman, and Dr. Deering.

A searching party with the aid of volunteer firemen from Lake Villa dragged Cedar Lake for nearly an hour late Tuesday afternoon before the body of Edward Gabriel, 15, of 1923 North LeClaire avenue, Chicago, was recovered.

The youth was a member of a party of 20 boys and girls from the St. Paul's Lutheran church club who were holding an outing at the lake. With several others, he had swam to a raft 250 feet from the shore. At about 2:30 p. m. some of the swimmers decided to go over to another raft. Gabriel said he would stay for a while and rest. At five o'clock when the boys were called together for supper, he was found to be missing.

An inquest was held by Coroner John L. Taylor, and a verdict of accidental drowning was returned.

Get Ready Now

It isn't pleasant to think of winter while enjoying the warm days of summer. But summer is the time when your home should be prepared against the cold and rainy period ahead, in the interest of comfort and fire prevention.

Check up on your heating plant first of all. Furnaces and chimneys should be thoroughly cleaned, and necessary repairs made by a qualified expert. Likewise, clean out the fuel bin and when you stock it arrange your fuel in an orderly manner. Papers or rags mixed in with wood or coal may result in spontaneous heating.

It is very possible that certain minor changes in construction in your home are advisable as an aid to fire prevention. Wood beams extending into chimney walls, for instance, have started many fires. And adequate fire stops are all-important.

Check over any exposed electric wiring—dark days bring maximum demand for light, and heavy use of electric heating appliances. Don't make amateur repairs yourself—bad wiring has caused many a serious fire. Your electrician will do it properly, and what little he charges is insignificant in the light of the fact it may save your home from destruction.

Finally, go through the house thoroughly, and clean out accumulations of papers, magazines, discarded clothing, broken furniture, and other inflammable junk.

Get ready for winter now. It's a little job that pays big dividends.

The Straw Man

A straw man towers over the nation today. Behind him move shadowy figures (We discern Harold Ickes and Tommy Corcoran), and they keep propping up the straw man and striving to breathe life into him. And all around him move senators, representatives, columnists, editorial writers and the man on Main Street. They all lunge with their lances and make speeches over his prostrate body or from a safe distance, as if they were on the defense against savage counter-lunges from the straw man.

And all the time the effigy has not spoken.

The straw man is, of course, the third-term issue. Whether President Roosevelt will strive to succeed himself has become the dominant subject of the hour. Before Mr. Roosevelt has said he would run for re-election the nation has divided itself into camps, one contending that he should not run and the other arguing that he should.

When and if President Roosevelt attempts to succeed himself for a third consecutive term as President of the United States we shall oppose the breaking of the no-third-term precedent. But this position will not be assumed because George Washington or Thomas Jefferson whom we so greatly admire, spoke against the third term. It will be taken because we believe it is bad in terms of the present to permit any man to be President of the United States for 12 years. And our chief apprehension would be the possibility that a President in such a period of time would inevitably evoke a political machine, fed on patronage and power, that would perpetuate itself beyond its useful service to the nation.

Story With a Moral

In a Philadelphia court six joyful refugees who had just been granted U. S. citizenship offered to buy an American flag to hang in the court room. There were three Italians, two Czechoslovakians and a Russian. The Russian was a refugee from a Communist country, and the others from Fascist countries.

Said the six after being granted their citizenship papers: "We are so happy to become American citizens that we thought Your Honor wouldn't object if we put our money together and bought a flag for your courtroom." The judge thanked the new citizens but refused their offer and ordered that a flag for the room be purchased immediately with the proper funds.

The plea of the refugees was a fine gesture, and they should prove to be valuable Americans, for they may help to convince some in this country that life in the "ism" countries is not what the dictators would have us believe that it is. Further, it should stir other Americans to vigilance to fight down the spread of these "ism" doctrines in the United States.

They use it to tell us to watch our pennies and our dollars would take care of themselves. Now we watch our pennies and the tax collector takes care of our dollars.

For our money, the prize for the most pitiful query of the year should go to the correspondent who inquires if it is necessary to put a stamp on letters containing income tax payments.

New York State ended its fiscal year with a deficit of $29,000,000, which, under the New Deal bookkeeping system, practically balances its budget.

"I Ought to Have a Rest"—FDR.

The authors of "Merry-Go-Round," a Washington gossip column which not only can be wrong but frequently is, quote Mr. Roosevelt as saying in response to a point blank inquiry as to how he felt about a third term, "I'm like a ball player who has been pitching a long time. I ought to have a rest."

We do not know whether or not the President made the statement attributed to him. But if he didn't he might very well have done so with perfect propriety. And the country would applaud such a statement if he would make it publicly. He has been in the pitcher's box a long time now. At times he has done amazingly well, at other times he has shown a disposition to be wild and to disregard signals. At any rate, the time has come when the country ought to send in a new pitcher.

Mr. Roosevelt "ought to have a rest." We believe he is going to get one after January 1941.

Thought on Ancestry

Owing to the intermarriage of cousins through the ages, the number of one's direct ancestors does not double with each receding generation, according to Collier's. If it did, the number of everyone's ancestors back in 1100 A. D. would exceed the entire population of Europe at that time.

English Once Taxed Windows

In the eighteenth century, English families paid heavy taxes on all houses with six or more windows. In France every window was taxed. In the United States today, all renting families pay taxes. The National Consumers Tax commission estimates that 25 per cent of rent goes for property taxes, direct taxes for the landlord but hidden for the renters.

ELIJAH: A LIFE OF COURAGE

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 18:30-39.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord is far from the wicked, but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.—Proverbs 15:29.

"Let courage rise with danger." Such is the plea of Webb's great hymn, "Stand Up for Jesus." Christianity in our day calls for courageous men and women.

Courage should be distinguished from such related things as bravery, valor, or bravado. Bravado is an affectation of a reckless bravery which surely has no place in Christian life and activity. Valor is associated with daring and vigorous action, for example, in battle. To be brave means to meet a challenge with confidence and resolution. To be courageous means to steadily meet perils of which one is deeply conscious, doing so because of the call of duty. Courage holds a deeper and nobler meaning than the other words, carrying with it the idea of moral strength and, in the case of the Christian, faith in God as one devoted to His cause.

Elijah was courageous, and he stands before our Christian youth today as an example of that godly courage which

I. Works in the Open (v. 30).

Men whose deeds are evil love the darkness rather than the light. God does not work in the dark. All of His workings are in the open sunlight. Every one is welcome to "come near" and see what is done. Elijah knew God and he acted like God's man. What a tragedy it is that not all of God's servants have followed his example. If we had the open and above-board dealings of Elijah in the affairs of our churches, we might see more of the fire and power of his ministry. Certain it is that the administration of church affairs which has to be carried out in hidden corners by whispered conversations and by secret manipulations behind the scenes, is not God's work at all, it is the work of man.

II. Asks No Favors (vv. 33-35).

Elijah rebuked the altar himself. He asked no help of the unbelieving prophets of Baal or of apostate Israel. How old-fashioned he seems in this day when so much stress is laid on a false unity of the faith; and there is so much solicitation and acceptance by the Church of the help of unbelievers in financing the supposed work of God. Note also that Elijah invited his enemies to make the answer to his prayer more difficult by pouring water on the sacrifice. This was not an act of bravado, it was for the purpose of demonstrating that there was no fraud. He was willing that the enemies of the truth should make the demonstration more difficult if that would be to God's glory. There is a delightful old-fashioned flavor about that act, too, in these days when men are frequently willing to compromise with unbelief and even with sin in order that the work of the Church may be carried on without too much difficulty. Here again we have an explanation of the lack of spiritual power in our times.

III. Honors God, Not Man (vv. 30-32, 36-37).

A man of bravery wants recognition for himself, while the courageous man asks only that the cause for which he fights shall be successful. Elijah had long since demonstrated that he was absolutely fearless, and sought no favor or glory (read the entire story). Now in the tenseness of this moment, he carefully rebuilds the altar of the true God (v. 30), makes it a testimony of unity to a divided Israel (v. 31), and he does it all in the name of the Lord (v. 32).

His prayer (vv. 30, 37) is a profoundly simple expression of a complete faith in the true God and His power on the part of a man who recognized himself as being only the divine servant. He made no plea that God would vindicate him or his ministry, but he did plead that the name of the Lord should be honored in the midst of an unbelieving people.

IV. Brings Eternal Results (vv. 30, 39).

"The fire of the Lord fell." The lying prophets of heathendom were routed. Many recognized Jehovah as the true God. While Israel did not long remember the lesson learned here, the story has continued as a testimony that will strengthen the people of God as long as time continues.

In God's Treasury
Treat the weakest and the worst with reverence, for, like yourself, they are the temples of the living God.

Abides Forever
The world passes away and the lust of it, but he that doeth the will of God abides forever.—1 John 2:17.

Attractive Holiness
The holiness of Christ did not awe men away from Him, nor repel them. It inspired them with hope.

Gourmets Slumped

At a "quiz" dinner held recently in Paris at which prizes were given to leading French gourmets for correctly guessing the vintages of the wine and the kinds of food, the winner named five of the six wines, but only three of the seven dishes. Nearly all did not know when they were eating reindeer and rabbit, probably misjudging the latter because brandy had been part of the animals' growing diet.

Yesterdays

46 YEARS AGO
In the Antioch News Files
August 3, 1893

A. Chinn was in Chicago Tuesday, and when pork took a tumble from $19.25 to $10.50 in one minute, he concluded that after all cows were the best.

The Harvest Ball at the Wilton Opera House will be given Friday evening, August 25.

A large number of Lake county people went to the fair Thursday morning on the steamer Nebraska. Orr's band accompanied them to the lake at Waukegan harbor and the delightful strains of music cheered them off. They arrived in Chicago at 1:30, and returned home at 1 o'clock the next morning.

The Lake County Hospital is an acknowledged success. It was organized in October, 1891, but was not opened until December, 1892. Funds were raised by subscription and entertainments, and patients are taken on merely a recommendation, if a resident of Waukegan or Lake county. Those who pay do so willingly and for those who can not there is a charity fund.

There are from one to five patients all the time. Our several physicians each give a month's service without charge. Miss Kate Miller is superintendent and Mrs. Kendall is manager of the domestic department. It is under the management of the Ladies' Aid society. They have $200 in the charity fund. Donations are most thankfully received and the cause is a worthy one.

Editor's Note: There were 1,777 admissions to the Lake County hospital last year, including the dozen babies' bassinets in the nursery, there are 102 beds.

GROWING OLD

The fairest lilies droop at eventide. The sweetest lilies fall from off the stem.

The rarest things on earth cannot abide.

And we are passing, too, away like them.

We're growing old.

Old? Well, the heavens are old; this earth is, too.

Old wine is best, maturest fruit must sweet.

Much have we gained, more lost, although 'tis true.

We're growing old.

—Atlanta Constitution.

(Which reminds us—the ANTIOCH NEWS is climbing up in years, too. On August 17 it will begin on its 53rd volume. We especially like the line about "old wine" and "mature fruit" and shudder at the mere thought of "passing away."—Yesterday's Editor.)

30 YEARS AGO

August 4, 1909

Last Sunday evening Sidney Dibble while driving to his home near Lake Villa had the misfortune to have his buggy upset and in the mixup received several kicks from his horse.

A Chicago woman was killed and W. S. Mills and Harry Hafer, who have summer homes at Lake Marie, were badly injured in an automobile accident south of Libertyville last Thursday evening.

A thousand guests of hotels and clubhouses around Fox Lake stood on the shore with field glasses and prayed for the success of rescuers who battled twenty-foot waves to take Hart Hanson from the overturned yacht to which he had clung for four hours.

The yacht and two others were upset when a gale suddenly blew up during the annual regatta of the Columbia Yacht club.

A band of horse traders camped near Trevor for a few days last week.

The boys had quite a lot of fun trading horses with them. Ask A. K. Mark for information.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Masonic temple Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. when Miss Mildred Veigel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Veigel, became the bride of William Almond Story, Jr. Miss Ruth Pollock was bridesmaid and the Misses Minnie Harden and Ruth Chinn of Antioch and Frances and Babe Daube of Lake Villa, pupils of Miss Veigel's were flower girls. Walter Scott attended the bridegroom.

The freakish electrical storm and cloudburst that hit Antioch last Sunday evening was evidently the tail end of a cyclone that hit up north earlier in the afternoon.

Lake County Deputy Sheriff Lester Tiffany and Freddy Wilt, Chicago, a member of the state constabulary, arrested each other Sunday evening at Channel Lake, where Wilt was reported to be causing a disturbance. Tiffany won and Wilt lost in the fight that followed. Quoth Wilt's father, a member of the Chicago police force, on Monday, "He needed the licking."

New 'Rubber'

A new rubber-like material, possessing many of the properties of natural rubber, is not attacked by oils and grease nor affected by many acids and alkalis. Process utilizes a mixture of glycerine and tung oil, heated to about 410 degrees Fahrenheit. In place of tung oil, the patent states that soya bean oil and other vegetable oils may be used in the process.

The Book of Kells, a magnificently illuminated copy of the Gospels by an unknown Seventh century Monk, is said to attract more visitors to Dublin in Ireland, than any other object in the city.

LIONS FESTIVAL ---

 To all Lions clubs within a radius of a hundred miles, notifying them that they are welcome to attend and bring their families and friends.

The extensive finance arrangements necessary to handling an undertaking of this scope are in the charge of Robert King, finance committee chairman, assisted by Irving Elms and J. B. Fields, committee members.

Special Festival Edition
 The ANTIOCH NEWS is cooperating by issuing a special "FESTIVAL EDITION" next Thursday, copies of which will be given out on Main street Friday and Saturday to visitors attending the festival.

Additional copies of the several thousand extra numbers that will be printed will also be sent to other communities to draw the attention of their residents to the big three-day program of merry-making.

"Big Time" Vaudeville
 The services of Frank Shepard, nationally known humorist, have been secured for this occasion, and Mr. Shepard will act as master of ceremonies throughout the three days of the festival.

Two "big time" acts of free vaudeville every evening at 7 and 11 o'clock will feature John and Jorie Armstrong, European acrobatic dancing and gymnastic team de luxe, first brought to this country by the late Florenz Ziegfeld, and beautiful young Betty Lee, the "world's fastest xylophonist."

A strolling band—Henry's original German band, no less—will entertain on the grounds afternoons and evenings.

Free dancing afternoons and evenings on a floor specially put down by the Lions club last year for this purpose is to be another of the features. Water fights, games, and special entertainments of all sorts will add to the fun.

For Community Betterment
 One of the reasons for the outstanding success of the Lions Festival last year, it has been pointed out, is the fact that the proceeds from the event are used for community-wide projects.

The club needs no funds for itself, as all expenses are taken care of through the payment of dues by the members. Therefore, all money netted through activities sponsored by the club is turned back into the community to further popularize the region and for the promotion of better business and better living conditions. Right now the club is renting a parking lot for the use of the public and hires an attendant for the busy hours, all at no cost in the business interests whom it benefits as well as providing a convenience for the public. Hundreds of dollars have been spent for advertising the region as a resort center, thus benefiting the entire community.

Lake County 8 et 40 Hears Annual Report

A number of Antioch members were present at a meeting held by Lake County Salon No. 191, 8 et 40, in the Colonial Room, at 1609 Sheridan road, North Chicago, on Wednesday. Plans for the annual Marche to be held at Peoria, Ill., August 19 - 22, in conjunction with the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary conventions were made.

During the past year, according to annual reports made during the meeting, donations made by the Lake County salon to Normal and to the National Jewish hospital in Denver, were instrumental in securing hospitalization and an operation for a five-year-old boy.

Mrs. Mancel Talcott of Waukegan, child welfare chairman, announced that birthday cards had been sent to children at the National Jewish hospital. The addition of a new member to the Lake County 8 et 40 was announced by Mrs. George McGaughey, of Waukegan, membership chairman. After the business meeting bridge was the diversion of the evening, with honors going to Mrs. McGaughey; to Mrs. Paul Chase of Channel Lake, and Mrs. James Mieczynski.

A luncheon was served by the hostess committee, Meses Jacob Thompson and Ernestine Clark.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lou Clouse, 1115 East Sixty-fourth street, Chicago, on September 9.

Blind Editor Climbs Mountain

Need for Fertilizer
 If America were to stop using fertilizer, it would be necessary to farm 50,000,000 additional acres at a cost of $550,000,000 a year, according to a survey by the Middle West Soil Improvement committee. Fortunately, the necessity of an ever-increasing program of soil conservation and improvement is being more and more recognized.

Italian Anthropology
 The most important anthropological discovery ever made in Italy is the recent finding of a human skull believed to be 130,000 years old, in a cave at the foot of Monte Circeo, a promontory, 80 miles southeast of Rome. Excavations were being made, when a subterranean passage was accidentally discovered leading to the cave. The skull was found on a primitive hearth and was identified as belonging to the species of Neanderthal man who lived in the Diluvium age.

Woman Coughs Up

Tack 25 Years Later

ARLINGTON, TEXAS.—Twenty-five years ago, 18-month-old Lorraine Coats swallowed a carpet tack. Now, Lorraine, now Mrs. Eugene Ward, has the carpet tack as a souvenir. EPITAPH ON GRAVE

HONORS IMMIGRANT

Tribute to Man Who Chose to Work for Relief.

ALQUIPPA, PA.—Residents of this Ohio valley steel town now feel that in some measure they have repaid a debt to Mario Ezzo, a poor Italian immigrant who died recently.

The man's body now lies in a well-marked grave in St. Joseph's cemetery instead of in a potter's field where he was buried after he was turned to death when his clothing caught fire in the county's poor house.

Steel workers took upon themselves the debt of giving Mario a "decent" burial because he had voluntarily swept Alleghenya streets to "earn" his weekly relief check of $3.00. Or, as Mario himself used to put it in his broken English: "You see, they give me money to live, it makes my bread taste sweeter to work—I am a man."

When he became ill and was confined to the county home the 63-year-old man always worried about paying the county for his sustenance. Then, one day in March, his bathrobe caught fire and the burns were fatal.

County officials had no alternative but to consign his body to an unmarked grave. But Alleghenya steel workers, their wives and children decided they would "pay" the poor old man a debt—a decent burial. A fund was started and townfolk contributed.

With the money a memorial was purchased and arrangements made to give the "Little Philosopher" a decent funeral.

Few persons of financial or social standing ever had a funeral whose ceremony and sincerity exceeded Ezzo's second burial. Seven hundred mourners, many of them weeping, were in the procession from potter's field to the ground of the cemetery.

Choir boys sang a requiem while priests recited the rosary.

The ceremony ended, the mourners filed past the "Little Philosopher's" grave to read the epitaph inscribed on the stone:

"Mario Ezzo—it (work) makes my bread taste sweeter . . . I am a man."

Arrested Driver Found

To Be Blind Pensioner

SAN JOSE, CALIF.—The wheels of justice may turn slowly but they turn out some queer cases in the end. When a motorist was arrested on a charge of drunken driving, a search of his papers revealed he was receiving a blind aid pension from the state, and that also a brother living with him was receiving a blind pension.

As the possession of a driver's license and a certificate of blindness impressed the officers as being incompatible, they had the driving license annulled.

Mirror Battling Bird

Triumphs After 14 Days

TULARE, CALIF.—Eddie, the battling housefinch, is considered a world's champion of some sort in these parts as the result of his 14-day fight against his own reflection in the window of a Tulare newspaper office.

Every day for two weeks, Eddie hopped up to the window and pecked away at the "other bird."

On the fifteenth day the "other bird" didn't show up. Perhaps Eddie took credit for frightening his adversary away, but really a generous coating of soap on the glass did away with the reflection.

Falls Down Elevator Well;

Lands on Another's Body

NEW YORK.—There was no elevator behind the shaft door which John Perilla opened in the Hotel Blumenkranz Murida, in Long Beach, where he is employed. Stepping through, Perilla fell one story to the bottom of the shaft. He was not injured, but was shocked to discover that his fall had been broken by the body of Charles Atman, another employee, who presumably had been killed in the same sort of accident.

Prisoners in Montana

Jail Really Get Tough

DILLON, MONT.—The traditional "bull in a china shop" was a veritable Ferdinand, compared to Joe and Buck Wilder, in the city jail on a charge of disorderly conduct. They pulled out a steam radiator by sheer force and with it knocked out the doors, windows and walls of the jail. Re-arrested on a charge of malicious destruction of property, to which they pleaded guilty, they were sentenced to 90 days in the county jail.

Belgium Opens Up New Canal

Waterway Is Expected to Stimulate Economic Life of Country.

WASHINGTON.—The Albert canal, magnificent manufactured waterway connecting the port of Antwerp with the industrial city of Liege, has been completed. To celebrate this event, King Leopold recently opened an International exhibition at Liege, often called the "Birmingham of the Low Countries."

"The canal, which was 10 years under construction, will stimulate the economic life of Belgium," says the National Geographic society. "It will extend industrialization in the Flemish countryside, and will make Liege, one of the most important inland ports of Europe."

Liege Is Chief City.

"Capital of a province of the same name, Liege is the chief city of the Walloon country, the French-speaking southern section of Belgium. Even with its hurly-burly of factories and business houses, it still bears the picturesque imprint of the Middle Ages. It is a curious combination of historic charm and progressive industrialism. The town is old, having been founded about the middle of the Sixth century. It is on the Maas river, an international stream which traverses a large part of northeastern France as the Meuse, and finally comes to an end in the Netherlands, after picking up a considerable share of the waters of the Rhine."

"For years the city was ruled by a long line of prince bishops who lived regally and maintained large armies. More than once the Walloon people surrounding Liege rebelled against their rulers. The city has been laid waste many times. Charles the Bold, last of the Burgundian dukes, made it the scene of a bloody massacre, described in Scott's "Quentin Durward."

Heroic Defenders.

"About the middle of the Seventeenth century, the Liegeois built a citadel for defense. Before the city became a part of united Belgium in 1830 it belonged successively to Austria, France, and the Netherlands. During the World war its defenders held off the German forces for more than a week. To the stout resistance of Liege, Paris owes much of her safety from capture during the first months of the war. The French government recognized the city's valor with the Cross of the Legion of Honor."

"In the Middle Ages Liege was a great cultural center. This tradition of culture is still in evidence. Home of a Royal Conservatory of Art, it fosters interest in contemporary art by annual exhibitions, and protects carefully its art treasures of the past. Liege is the birthplace of Cesar Franck, famous composer and organist, and of Eugene Ysaye, the great Belgian violinist, who taught in its Conservatory of Music."

"In this strange mixture of the smoke of industry and the dust of antiquity, lamp-posts decorated with baskets of flowering plants flout patches of brilliant color in the summer."

Oldest Foreign Mission

Is Nearing 130th Year

ST. LOUIS.—The oldest foreign missionary society in America, the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, will hold its 130th annual meeting here this fall.

The board, founded in 1810, will meet October 24-26 in conjunction with the Midwest Regional Conference of Congregational and Christian Churches. General theme will be "The World Christian Community at Work," and the program will feature nationally and internationally known church leaders as well as business and professional men. Official delegates are expected to number 500.

The Midwest regional area includes churches in 19 states—Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, and Texas.

Children Think Fast,

Save Smothering Cat

ALAMEDA, CALIF.—Bobby Nelson, 12, and his eight-year-old brother, Ronnie, knew how to diagnose a patient and apply the proper remedy as fast as the most skilled physician. The patient was a cat. It had its head fast in an empty salmon can.

It was apparent that the cat was going to die of suffocation before even they could get its head out. They promptly punched holes with an icepick in the bottom of the can and, with air restored, proceeded to extract the cat's head.

Building Rises as Silent Monks Toil

Abandoned Project Taken Up by Cistercians.

LONDON.—Eighty men spend their lives learning how to die at a monastery in Charnwood Forest, Leicestershire.

They rise every morning at two and go to bed at night at seven. No woman has ever set foot in their house. No words pass their lips.

Nearly five years ago Trappist monks from Mount St. Bernard abbey, Leicestershire, vowed to celebrate the centenary of the return of the Cistercians to England by completing their church, begun many years before, but left unfinished through lack of funds.

Today the 100-foot tower rises above the trees. It is now expected to be furnished and decorated in time to be consecrated this summer.

Just over a century ago six monks took possession of a tiny, half-ruined cottage in the depths of the wood. All around was desolate, untilled waste.

Snow and rain beat on them as they lay down each night for five hours sleep, rising at midnight to sing hymns in their wooden chapel, and going out before the dawn to plow and sow.

Today Mount St. Bernard takes its place with the greatest of the Cistercian abbeys—Beaulieu, Fontaines, Rievaulx, Kirkstall, Tintern, Margam—and its model farm of 800 acres is one of the most successful in the midlands.

Some of the brothers once were successful men in the world outside. One, still young, held a $5,000 a year job with the London County Council. Now he tailors the monks' long habits and cowls.

A once-famous musician plays the organ when the community troop into their church to worship, seven times a day.

Two of the monks were policemen, one drove a lorry, and one captained a university football team.

Federal Report Scores

Billboards on Highways

WASHINGTON.—The bureau of public roads, in its report recommending a nationwide national defense highway system, took a crack at the billboards and roadside stands, labeling them "positive menaces" to driving safety which "must be controlled."

"The mere presence of these numerous, close-crowding objects and establishments is a distraction to drivers of vehicles," the bureau said. "Some of them, by every conceivable device, endeavor to attract the attention of drivers of vehicles from their primary responsibility; most of them contribute largely to the hazards of unexpected stopping, turning, and emergence upon the highways of both vehicles and pedestrians."

"All are positive menaces and must be controlled, and the only probability of material improvement lies in a general and substantial widening of the rights-of-way of the more important roads, together with effective border control."

Tobacco-Chewing Deer Is

Pet of New York Section

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—A deer that breakfasts and dines in Hamlin farmhouses, sees his young friends off to school and roams the fields impatiently until they return. The deer, usually called Peter, was tamed by CCC boys camped at Hamlin. It was turned loose last November and immediately struck up a lasting friendship with the Hamlin school children.

By all rules of nature a deer is supposed to be timid, but this one will knock you over or sit on your lap.

Even passing motorists don't frighten the year-old deer. A handful of tobacco, Peter's only vice, will tempt the pet inside the car. Peter scorns the companionship of 15 other deer in nearby Hamlin Beach park.

Surgeons Don Blue Coats

As Eye Aid in Operating

BOSTON.—Men in white have given way to doctors in blue in the neuro-surgical operating rooms at City hospital.

Surgeons explained that white uniforms sometimes produced a "glare" which interfered with the vision of a doctor performing a delicate operation. In the neuro-surgical operating rooms, they said, extremely delicate brain operations are performed and surgeons cannot afford to risk any eye distraction or fatigue which might be caused by an all-white room plus white uniforms. Hospital authorities believe that eventually all surgeons will wear blue when operating.

British Woman With Title

Runs Ontario Gas Station

OAKVILLE, ONT.—Lady Diana Taylour, O. B. E., has opened a gasoline service station at Post Corners, just north of Oakville, and is believed to be the first titled woman in the British empire to enter the roadside service business. Lady Diana, who received the Order of the British Empire for World war service, during which she was an ambulance driver, also plans to build a tourist home and tearoom.

SKIPPER TREASURES HERO PAPERS FROM BRITISH ROYALTY

River and Lake Captain Has Rescued 26 Persons
From Wrecks.

MEMPHIS.—The hungry, muddy waters of Old Man River licked at the new coat of paint on the Isabella II and her skipper, Capt. Arthur Edgar Eagan, stood there by the rail and, between puffs at his pipe, talked about cheating the river and death of their victims.

He's a hero in his own right for he has rescued 26 persons from drowning, and he talked about the rescues as if they were part of his job.

He blew a cloud of smoke into the star-spangled night and he must have been thinking about the time when he pulled 12 persons out of the icy waters of Lake Michigan.

"Wait a minute," Captain Eagan said. "I'll show you some of my papers."

He disappeared below deck and you could hear him as he slammed a cabin door. Soon he was back with two age-browned documents.

"A collector once offered me $1,000 for this one," he said, handing across one of the papers. "Of course I turned it down."

It was a citation of the Royal Humane society, awarding him a medal "for having saved life from drowning." The date on it was November 15, 1910. It was signed by "George P. President," the prince of Wales, the man who later became king of England and gave up his throne for the woman he loved.

Honored by Chicago.

The other citation, dated December 1, 1901, conferred the Chicago Life Saving medal for "having saved 26 persons from drowning."

"The British consul at Chicago is the one that got me the Royal Humane Society medal," said Captain Eagan. "That was because I rescued 12 people out in Lake Michigan, and three of them were British subjects, one of them a 76-year-old woman."

The rescue took place 11 miles north of Chicago and 26 miles off shore. It was late one stormy afternoon. Captain Eagan and several companions were coming across the lake in a small sailing boat when the storm hit. They sighted a schooner-yacht in distress and headed for it.

"We sailed around her," he explained, "but we couldn't get close because a 30-mile wind was blowing and the seas were high. I swam over to the boat and took a line. They didn't have a life preserver on the boat. They were all wild except the 76-year-old woman. She was the gamest one in the bunch. One at a time I got 'em to our boat."

Received $500 Reward.

Later the woman gave the captain a check for $500 and the boat from which they were rescued.

Last November Captain Eagan started out from Lake Michigan for the Texas gulf coast. His crew was a bunch of young landlubbers. But before they got away from the northern winter they ran into some rough weather. The boat froze over and the hatches were sealed with ice. Two of the young would-be sailors became prisoners. Finally chopped out, they quit.

When the skipper and remaining members of the crew had moved on down the Mississippi, the rest of the crew decided they had had enough too. So Captain Eagan called off the gulf venture and tied in here.

Lifer Used Yarn in Jail

Break, Official Reveals

DENVER, COLO.—Federal prisoners are not allowed to wear woolen socks because they might escape from the penitentiary.

The startling statement was made here by A. V. Anderson, district supervisor of the United States alcohol tax unit in Denver and former warden of the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

Speaking on crime and criminals, Anderson told a group of business men that a strand of wool from a woolen sock was used to saw through a one-inch iron bar, and since that time woolen socks have been banned in federal prisons.

"Ralph Evans, a life-terminer, used the woolen fiber in sawing through the bar in the amazing time of seven hours," Anderson said.

"I didn't believe it when Evans told me, so he did it again while I looked on and satisfied myself it could actually be done."

Postcard Reaches There,

But It's 26 Years Late

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO.—Though he waited a long time, Fred Hatcher of the Ohio Odd Fellows home finally has received a postcard mailed to him from Cleveland more than 26 years ago.

The postcard, with its penciled script still legible and hardly a crack on its face, was written by a Mr. Peck, June 1, 1913, from Willoughby, Ohio, and bore a Cleveland postmark of the same date at 11 p. m.

The card was addressed to Hatcher at his former home in Rushsylvania, Ohio, but did not arrive there until March 29, 1939. Hatcher received the postcard from Mrs. Mable Sloan, along with a note commenting:

"It has taken it some time to get here, has it not?"

First Gas Mask Made

By Londoner in 1854

It has just been discovered by the Bulletin of the Imperial Institute that the first practical gas mask was invented by a Dr. Stenhouse in 1854, and its manufacture placed in the hands of the instrument makers of St. Bartholomew's hospital, London. It was intended for physicians and nurses as a protection against air communicable diseases. On a back shelf of the hospital museum, what is believed to be the only specimen in existence was found.

In a thin copper sheet, padded with velvet and shaped to cover the nose and mouth, were inset two fine wire gauzes, one-eighth inch to one-quarter inch apart, with charcoal between. The respirator was held in position by a stout elastic band passing round the back of the head, and was designed "to absorb and destroy any miasmata or infectious particles present in the air in the case of fever and cholera hospitals, and of districts infected with ague, yellow fever and similar diseases."

Dr. Stenhouse also suggested that "persons living in pestiferous areas might make their houses airtight as possible," and admit air only through charcoal filters.

"It is a pity," the Bulletin comments, "that so much valuable work should have been overlooked in the period of emergency which arose some 60-odd years later, during the early part of the World war."

Old Letters Sometimes Carry Valuable Stamps

One frequently bears stories of rare stamp finds in old accumulations of mail. Usually the stories are not very well authenticated. There must be some interesting items still hidden away, but most old desks and trunks of letters have been pretty well ransacked by juvenile collectors.

Still, if you are so fortunate as to have an attic in the family, it would be interesting to have a look at the old letters. It might possibly pay. Should you find a five-cent brown stamp of the year 1801 with the head of Jefferson on it, which some one forgot to use, you will never again scold Aunt Emma for saving old papers. The stamp is catalogued at $2,250.

A one-cent indigo of the same vintage (head of Franklin) is worth $2,500, while an unused 12-cent black (head of Washington) calls for $7,000. But they must be the first issue of this series, which was on very thin paper. Later ones are on thick paper and are low in value.

Maybe there is a New Haven, Conn., stamped envelope of 1845, a five-cent blue stamp on a buff envelope—one of those tiresome letters of advice Great-Great-Aunt Hetty used to write to her nephews. Her advice was valuable; that stamped envelope is worth $10,000! —Commentator.

Family Tradition Survives

In the days when the Venetians held the secret of fine glass making and kept it under penalty of death, the skill of the glass blowers was passed from father to son for generations. The death penalty was repealed a thousand years ago and the glass blowers gave way to modern machinery early in the present century. But the skill of the plate glass polishers continues as a family tradition in the big glass plants of Toledo, Ohio. For example, on the 1,700-foot polishing line in the Libbey-Owens-Ford plant here there are seven father-and-son combinations. Technical developments have given them a 350-ton machine, electrically controlled, with which to grind off a paper-thin layer of glass to give the plate its crystal polish. Nevertheless, the perfected product depends largely on their skill in grading and handling more than 30 different sands and polishing materials, some of it so fine that it could almost be used to brush your teeth!

Gas Tells Age of Rock

A new method of measuring small amounts of gases extracted from rocks has been developed by Dr. Alfred C. Lane, professor emeritus of geology at Tufts college. It will measure a volume as small as a grain of wheat extracted from a ton of rock or very much smaller amounts taken from smaller samples. It is a vacuum tube containing a fine wire whose resistance is altered by the impact of the gas molecules which reduce its temperature. It is used in measuring the amount of helium produced by the breakdown of radium in rocks. The amount of this gas gives an index of the length of time the radium has been disintegrating in the rock and this gives the rock's age and that in turn gives an index of the earth's age. The more accurate determination made by this device gives the earth's age as 2,000,000,000 years or more, says Professor Lane.

Ember Day Adaptation

Ember days, which were instituted by Pope Gregory as days of fasting and prayer, are the Wednesday, Friday and Saturday after the first Sunday in Lent, after Whitsunday, after the fourteenth of September and after the thirtieth of December. They were an adaptation of a Roman season of prayer and fasting with petitions to the Roman deities for success in the spring seeding, the June bountiful harvest, September rich vintage and December winter seeding.

Thieves Return to

Haul Away the Safe

KLAMATH FALLS, ORE.—Persistent thieves believe that if at first you don't succeed, try again. After a local store keeper surprised robbers trying to open his safe, he bolted the safe to the floor.

Next night the prowlers returned, cut away the floor surrounding the safe and made off with the floor, safe and $300.

TO SEEK TREASURE ON PACIFIC ISLE

Adventurer, Despite an Early Failure, Tries Again.

AUCKLAND, NEW ZEALAND.—Despite his failure late last year to discover Spanish treasure on the remote island of Suvarrow in the South Pacific, J. W. Wray, New Zealand adventurer, intends to lead another expedition to hunt for the treasure in his ocean-going yacht Ngataki.

Wray is still convinced that there is buried treasure to be found on Suvarrow, and he intends to return there after the next hurricane season.

This time he will take with him electro-magnetic equipment, designed to detect metals underground.

At his last fruitless attempt, wooden spears and old German bayonets, which had been taken from New Zealand for the purpose, were used to probe the sands, but no trace of the Spanish treasure was found.

Suvarrow island consists of a circular coral reef, about eight miles in diameter, surrounding about 18 small uninhabited islets.

The party decided that any treasure that may have been buried would be found on the principal piece of land, Anchorage Island; and it was here that the Ngataki's crew concentrated their search.

The yacht remained in the still for about six days and much of the time was spent probing the sands.

Evidence that the island had at one time been populated by Europeans was found among the tangled undergrowth which covered most of the islands.

Here and there the crew discovered the ruins of ancient houses or forts made from a mixture of coral and lime, but though the generally accepted theory was that the stoll had been used in the Sixteenth century by wandering Spaniards as a base for their enterprises, the origin of the ruins is still clouded in mystery.

Scotland Yard Blocks

Crooks' Source of Tips

LONDON.—Audacious methods are being used by crooks in Britain to learn secret ways used by Scotland Yard to catch them. Scotland Yard chiefs have learned that police have been instructing crooks for several weeks on crime detection.

The blunder was discovered when a London police station inspector asked the criminal records office at Scotland Yard for the file of an arrested man.

Startled officials found that the man, who had a long list of previous convictions, was a member of the police war reserve. As a part of his training he must have been shown the inner workings of the Yard, including the information room, nerve center of crook-catching, and the map room, where colored flags denote the prevalence of crime in different areas.

He would also have been instructed in police methods of trapping offenders and would have had access to official instructions.

A quick survey strengthened the suspicions of Yard officials that the man was not the only crook who had taken advantage of police information to break the law.

Hitherto recruits for the reserve have only had to fill in a form and pass a medical test. There has been no investigation of character. Orders have now been issued to close this loophole in the regulations.

Midwest Cattle Rustling

Now Large-Scale Crime

KANSAS CITY, MO.—Cattle rustling has become a big time criminal activity and is now costing Midwest farmers approximately $1,500,000 a year.

Reports from the Missouri highway patrol for 1938 show that in Missouri alone the loss from cattle rustling was $150,000.

In Kansas the problem has become so acute that all sheriffs have been requested to file figures on rustling reports and losses with the state live stock commissioner.

According to the Missouri highway patrol, most of the modern rustlers operate out of large cities and use speedy trucks.

Stray Pup Prima Donna

Gives Police Headache

BOSTON.—A stray prima donna pup, addicted to singing for its supper, gave police at the Matapan station a headache while a temporary guest there.

The dog's operatic attempts brought police running with food. But after downing the food, the pup began another aria. More food. More arias.

Finally police called it a day and stuffed their ears with cotton.

Borrow From Victorian Era For Quaint Summer Frocks

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

"LITTLE WOMEN" of today are borrowing from the Victorian era for their summertime frocks.

Ingenue silk taffetas are being shown in neat little checks such as were worn by the fashionable miss of the polite and decorous yester-years. These taffetas vie with taffelized crepes, gaily sprigged with flowers in a coy and cunning manner. Also to be seen this season are many supple silk crepes in both plain versions and in printed stylized florals and geometrics.

With these naive silks go winsome tighorn bonnets, velvet bound and with a nosegay on top, the quaintness added unto with petticoat ruffles peeping from beneath full, graceful and animated skirts. Guimpes and fitted bodices do much toward transforming the modern school girl, in appearance at least, into her Nineteenth century counterpart who was "seen and not heard" in the presence of her elders.

Speaking of present day styling details, necklines go high or low, sleeves more often than not are puffed, and bodices are softly filled with shirtings and smockings or else are quaintly basqueline. Interest continues in the skating silhouette rejuvenated by lingerie touches and petticoat ruffles.

The basque bodice, full skirted silhouette so important these days in the style picture, gives youthful charm to a neat silk print as shown to the left in the picture. The print is in the new golden beige coloring which together with its neat small motifs introduced in its silk crepon fabric, does this dress unmistakably of 1939 vintage. Thrilling news from Paris cited a revival of the lingerie fichu worn with silk prints. The crisp white organdy fichu and pearl-encrusted cameo mounted on black velvet dangling from a cunningly devised organdy "necklace" are flattering accents to this pretty gown for a young lady of "teen" age.

Polka dots flourish in the print realm this season both for adults and the younger generation. The dirndl influence in the skirt, the square neckline, the yoke treatment are details that combine to make the dress of polka-dot silk crepe centered in the picture, a very smart affair for the growing girl. Very practical too, for the silk washes perfectly.

Interest continues in the skating silhouette in skirts rejuvenated by spie and span lingerie touches and petticoat ruffles. For the pretty little-girl frock to the right in the picture the designer selects a china blue silk crepe with a stylized floral print. Fine eyelet batiste makes its petticoat ruffle and it also edges the square scalloped neckline. The Victorian bonnet that tops this quaint dress is a newly accepted fashion this season for young girls.

Now a word in regard to party dresses for sweet sixteen and thereafter. For dancing daughters, the graduate girl, birthday party or little flower girls who grace the wedding scene, silk sheers take the limelight. There are silk georgettes, mousseline de soie, silk marquisette and both plain and printed starched silk chiffon, and if not selecting a sheer then let classic silk chiffon in ankle or short length versions be your choice. These are in such pastel shades as peach, pink, aqua, delphinium blue and of course white.

Skirts are always full whether through smocking or ruffles of preschool simplicity or through flares and circular cuts for older girls. Necklines ape those of their elders with many heart-shaped and square types being favored.

Splurge of Color

Vividly colorful and no-end exciting is a stunning new bag, belt and glove set designed by Herbert Biennen, in soft white leather embroidered in multi-colored threads to form an intricate all-over pattern that is fascinating to look upon. Note in the picture the smooth tailored lines of the flat bottomed bag, the side insertions of the gay embroidery of the white kid gloves and the matching belt. Just the right splurge of color for any costume and simply stunning worn with a white Mexican sombrero hot bound in red as illustrated.

Now a word in regard to party dresses for sweet sixteen and thereafter. For dancing daughters, the graduate girl, birthday party or little flower girls who grace the wedding scene, silk sheers take the limelight. There are silk georgettes, mousseline de soie, silk marquisette and both plain and printed starched silk chiffon, and if not selecting a sheer then let classic silk chiffon in ankle or short length versions be your choice. These are in such pastel shades as peach, pink, aqua, delphinium blue and of course white.

Skirts are always full whether through smocking or ruffles of preschool simplicity or through flares and circular cuts for older girls. Necklines ape those of their elders with many heart-shaped and square types being favored.

POINTS OF SILOS

Various Types Analyzed
By Engineer.

By C. H. REED

To the dairyman, an important question is: "How long will a silo last?" The answer to this question is found in a study of 170 silos made by the New York state college department of agricultural engineering.

Advantages of the wood stave silo are two: A low initial cost, and the fact that silage acid will not deteriorate the wood. The disadvantages: It may blow over any time unless properly built and cared for. It should be painted on the outside, and hoops and guy wires must be kept tight.

Square and octagon wood silos have the same advantages and some of the disadvantages. For this type, in addition, the silage requires better spreading and more tramping than in round silos.

Triple wall silos, similar to the wood stave type, are giving satisfactory service when properly built and cared for. Concrete stave silos will probably give service for 18 to 20 years with little, if any, care, but among the disadvantages are: high initial cost, silage acid will corrode and disintegrate concrete, making protection of the inside of the silo necessary every four or five years.

Study Shows Cost of Hauling Cream to Plant

The pound of butter on the dining table includes in its price a cost of 1.60 cents for hauling a pound of butterfat from farm to creamery.

This cost feature was among those facts discovered in a creamery truck operation study conducted by R. W. Bartlett, assistant chief in agricultural economics, and G. W. Freemyer, assistant in agricultural economics, college of agriculture, University of Illinois.

Co-operating in the study were the owners and operators of 14 trucks hauling cream in central Illinois. Excluding labor, the average cost a mile for operating the 14 trucks was 3.14 cents. Costs for gasoline, tires, lubrication and repairs were about three-fourths of the total cost of truck operation.

Largest single expense item was found to be gasoline which represented 40.6 per cent of the cost of 3.14 cents a mile. Tires, repairs and lubrication amounted to 26 per cent of the total. Fixed costs were relatively low because of the high mileage for each truck which averaged about 35,800 miles over an 11-month period.

Latest fashion note on license plates—the 1940 Illinois ones will have cream-colored numerals on a coffee-brown background, according to a news dispatch from Springfield. Theme song—“You’re the cream in my coffee.”

The “Keep Antioch Good Looking” club proudly boasts a new member. The MariAnne shop is having some re-modeling done, preparatory to adding a new department.

And the Antioch Lions club is all a-dither over its coming festival. Mr. Adolph Kucera demands an immediate correction in the paper: The Lions want 40,000 people to attend their festival this year, instead of a mere 20,000, he says. We’ll settle for 30,000.

Juniors to Hear Chicago Police Drum Corps. Mgr.

Lieut. John O'Malley, manager of the Chicago Police Drum and Bugle corps, which is considered one of the best in Illinois, will be present at the practice period of the Antioch Junior Legion corps this evening.

Lieut. O'Malley, who has a summer home near Antioch, will give the juniors a few “pointers” he has found valuable to the Chicago corps.

Suggestions which the lieutenant has given Corps Adviser Otto Klass are already proving valuable.

One of these has led to the formation of a “grievance committee,” of corps members which is on the order of a student council, and will handle disciplinary and other matters.

Lakers Have One Big Inning; Score 9 Runs in 4th to Crush Locals

Old man “jinks” is relentless in his chase of the Antioch Aces. Sunday the locals suffered the second shut-out setback, this time at the hands of Silver Lake, 12 to 0. The home crew has scored but one run up to the disastrous fourth frame when the defense wavered and a few costly errors paved the way for the slaughter—nine runs crossed the plate before three men could be put out.

Next Sunday afternoon Wilmet comes to the home grounds for a game with the Aces.

POLICE WILL STAND GUARD AT McMILLEN VON SCHNACHT BOUT

Pair Ordered to Meet in Main Bout Fri.—Schnabel Bout Near Riot Last Wk.

Out of the frying pan, into the fire, that's where Jim McMillen, Lake county's foremost all-around athlete found himself last Friday night after Friedrich von Schnabel, the tremendous and temperamental German, bounded into the ring to take up the battle with McMillen where Hans Schnabel was ordered to stop by referee Lou Gordon. As a result McMillen and Von Schnabel have been ordered to meet in the main event of the weekly card this Friday night at the lake arena and county police are being mustered to take control should another near-riot develop.

All the excitement started last week when the referee called a quick count on Schnabel and tried to give the match to McMillen. Schnabel went wild, fists flying in all directions, and Countryman von Schnabel came to Schnabel's aid after McMillen. It was some minutes before battling spectators, wrestlers, and officials could be ushered from the ring by the police, and the fray threatened to start all over again in the dressing room when Schnabel and McMillen began to battle on the concrete floor. The Commission Inspector, Sam Gornstein stepped in and ordered the pair to meet on the weekly card Friday. . . and best of all, Hans Schnabel claims this time he's going to second von Schnabel.

Supporting matches that will hold the spectators' excitement during the earlier minutes of the evening before the big climax include a semi-windup between Matti Matsura, famous Japanese jiu-jitsu champion, and Mike “Whiskers” London, rough and tumble ex-shepherd from the west.

In the preliminary bouts Frankie Hart, handsome Holland Olympic champion, returns to take on the colorful and sensational Persian star, Shiek Mar Allah. Frankie is a consistent winner at the local sports center, and should have a tough time with his oriental opponent. The other preliminary pits Walter Palmer, former Central and National A. A. U. champion, against strongman Bull Curly tattooed Italian.

Ladies are invited free in the ring-side section accompanied by escorts.

Rubber Room

J. H. Connors, completing plans for participation of the B. F. Goodrich company in the New York World's fair, revealed his company was only following a precedent established by the inventor of vulcanized rubber, Charles Goodyear, who exhibited three rooms of rubber at the world's first international fair at London in 1851. All walls, furniture, drapes and ceilings of the 1851 rooms were made of rubber.

Persistent Peckers
Woodpeckers are causing considerable damage to the poles of Indiana Public Service corporation, with company officials looking for a solution. Cresote was used, but it seems the birds pecked away at the poles and when the cresote got too strong they flew away to clean their bills on the grass and returned again to peck away. Rotten or sound poles are all the same to the woodpeckers as proving grounds.

Soil Erosion Costly
It is estimated that about 2,000,000 acres of land have been abandoned in Maine during the last 50 years because of soil erosion.
